Belief Statements

We believe:

- Every person has inherent worth and deserves to be respected and treated with dignity.
- Every person deserves to live in peace in a safe, secure and nurturing environment.
- Every person's life is enhanced by relationships with family and with both formal and informal personal networks.
- Every person is entitled to have committed allies who will advocate for and sometimes act on the individual's behalf.
- Every person can contribute in meaningful ways to the life of his/her community and deserves to be supported by that community.
- Every person has the right to make decisions and these decisions should be respected. The person deserves to be assisted and supported in exercising this right.
- Every person deserves individualized service, which responds to his/her changing needs over time.

Commitments

Rygiel Supports for Community Living is committed to:

- A process of on going critical evaluation, which includes self-reflection and external review and implies a commitment to change as the need arises.
- Doing what we can, to enhance the lives of the people we serve, particularly in reaction to the consequences of society's often negative attitudes towards people who have disabilities.
- Providing the best service possible with the available resources and to use the resources as wisely and efficiently as possible.
