

JOIN OUR BOARD!

Rygiel Supports for Community Living is seeking strategic, community-minded leaders to guide our next chapter. For nearly 60 years, we have enriched the lives of the people we support through relationships, independence, belonging, and advocacy. We provide inclusive living, community participation, respite services, and specialized medical supports designed around the person — not the system.

Board Member Role Overview

Board Members provide governance oversight, strategic direction, fiduciary accountability, and stewardship of Rygiel's mission, vision, and values. The Board operates at a governance level, not an operational level, ensuring clarity between leadership and management roles.
